WORSHIP SPEAKER & COMMUNION:

The Rev. Helen "Punker" Robertson.

Originally from western New York State, a Navy wife for twenty years, RN, Heath Educator, Young Life youth ministry leader and ordained Teaching Elder in the Shenandoah Presbytery, Helen Robertson currently serves at Fairfield Presbyterian Church and Williamsville Presbyterian Church and Westminster Chapel in Bath County.

Having raised five children and the grandmother of twelve grandchildren, Punker has experienced many "seasons of hope" in our Lord, which she will share at the Spring Gathering.

SPECIAL MUSIC:

Born and raised in Staunton, Teresa Whitesell, has been writing songs, singing and playing guitar for over 40 years. She enjoys performing gospel and songs from the 60's and 70's. One of her gospel songs was performed by the Statler Brothers on their television show.

A graduate of Lee High, Blue Ridge Community College and Mary Baldwin, Teresa also attended JMU and Belmont University in Nashville, TN.

Currently a Quality Coordinator for Cadence, Inc., where she has been for the past 12 years, Teresa has been a member of Olivet Presbyterian for 30 years. At Olivet, she is past serving Elder, sings in the choir, teaches Sunday School and provides special music throughout the year.
