DIRECTIONS TO MASSANETTA SPRINGS CONFERENCE CENTER

If you are coming from the Shenandoah Valley, take Exit 274A from I-81 onto Route 33 East. Go to the 7th stoplight (about 2.5 miles) and turn right on the Massanetta Springs Road (Route 687). The main parking lot for the conference center is approximately a half-mile on the right. (Look for the stone wall on the right. If you have passed the flashing light, you have gone too far.)

If you are coming from east on the Blue Ridge Mountains, take US 29 to Ruckersville. Turn west onto Route 33. Follow Route 33 west for almost 34 miles. Turn left onto Massanetta Springs Road (Route 687). The main parking lot for the conference center is approximately a half-mile on the right.

Spring is an especially beautiful time to visit the grounds of Massanetta Springs. The historic hotel has a veranda with rocking chairs. This is an ideal spot to sit and enjoy the colors, smells, and fresh air of Massanetta's grounds.

Helpful information: Dress is casual and comfortable. A golf cart will assist with on-campus transportation as needed.

Let's Talk (& Listen): Biblical Hope for Today

Nancy Crow Summerlin

We live in anxious times. How can we be people who talk and listen to each other with mutual respect as we respond to the sources of our anxieties? In this retreat we will explore how the Bible guides us to understand ways we can remain open and confident when so much changes around us. We will especially search for biblical wisdom on four of the chief sources of our anxieties: fear, anger, wealth, and poverty. What we find may surprise you.

RETREAT LEADER

The Rev. Nancy Crow Summerlin spent 25 years as a communicator and manager in the electric utility industry and for a large chemical production facility. In 2004, she left her corporate career to attend Union Presbyterian Seminary in Richmond where she was the chapel coordinator and received the E. T. George Award for excellence in homiletics, worship and public speaking. She has served small churches in Virginia and San Miguel de Allende, Mexico, and was moderator of the Presbytery of the James in 2015-16.

RETREAT SPONSORSHIP

The Presbytery of the James and the Shenandoah Presbytery are jointly sponsoring the 2017 retreat. Clergy and lay leaders from both presbyteries serve on the planning team.

The retreat offers a time for adults to gather for spiritual enrichment, worship, and fellowship over a shared meal. Adults of all religious faiths are welcome to bring an open heart, a willing spirit, and joy to share.
