

TINKLING SPRING PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH, a historic Presbyterian church founded in the Shenandoah Valley in 1740, is looking for a dedicated, energetic and creative Christian to become the part-time Director of Music Ministries for its long-established, well-supported music program.

The Director works with the Pastor/Head of Staff, staff, and volunteers, to develop, coordinate, and direct a comprehensive music ministry to enhance worship services, special services, and congregational fellowship.

- This part-time position is primarily responsible for directing the adult Chancel choir through weekly rehearsals and worship service performances.
- As time allows, the Director will also assist in the formation and direction of other choral and instrumental groups within the congregation.
- The Director meets regularly with pastor, staff and the Worship Ministry to plan and coordinate regular worship and other special services and ministry opportunities.
- If available, the Director may also assist with funerals, weddings, and other special services.

This opportunity requires an individual with a degree in music or equivalent experience in formal music training; strong leadership and supervisory abilities; a commitment to the Lord Jesus Christ; and an ability to foster constructive relationships with adults, youth, children, and members of the church community.

Interested applicants should send a resume and cover letter to Debra Fitzgerald O'Connell at fitzgerald.tspc@gmail.com.

We will be considering applications as they are received and will begin initial conversations with candidates May 22, 2023.

This position is available June 1, 2023.
